Description/Profile

Conference News is the leading publication in the UK dedicated only to the conference and meetings market, and is a valuable monthly tool for busy organisers and planners to keep them up to date with the industry changes.

With regular venue and destination features, Conference News provides a platform and strong voice for serious meetings industry professionals in the UK.

Conference News is delivered to 15,000 (ABC Audited) senior meeting planners at corporations, associations, and professional conference organisations throughout the UK every month. This publication is read by decision-makers at large organisations with sizable meetings and conference budgets, which are available for data selection also.
