Description/Profile

“The magazine for the UK Exhibition organising industry”

Exhibition News is a monthly publication and is the ‘must read’ of the UK exhibition industry. Exhibition News covers the hottest topics, with features on the key issues of the day and interviews with key personalities. This source is required reading if you are to remain at the cutting edge of the exhibition industry.

Exhibition News is the only publication in the UK dedicated to the exhibition industry. It is an informative and highly relevant source of information which provides its readers ideas on how to run events more successfully and therefore grow their business.

This magazine is delivered to 6,000 UK exhibition industry professionals every month (ABC Audited) and is a key source for targeting key exhibition organisers across the UK market.
