Description/Profile

Data Global is a provider of data related marketing services. Their core offering is the Global Masterfile comprising businesses and individuals built from business directories, government filing records, Web and telephone research.

This B2B Global Masterfile is updated on a daily bases via managed marketing campaigns and web monitoring software that highlights company changes which are then tele-verified. This is in addition to an on-going programme of maintenance derived from government filings and directory updates.

The data includes:

- Executive Contact
- Company Name
- Address, telephone & email
- Web address
- Number of Employees
- Company Description
- Turnover
